Acknowledgements

We would like to thank the team of the Netherlands' Course on Global Health and Tropical Medicine of the KIT Royal Tropical Institute in Amsterdam for passionately teaching the determinants of health model. The lectures and assignments of the course led to the first draft of this paper. Especially the guidance and support of Maaïke Flinkenflögel was of great value. We thank professor Florence Mirembe from the Department of Obstetrics and Gynaecology of the Makerere University College of Health Sciences in Kampala, Uganda, for sharing her thoughts after reading our manuscript.
